

Be A Part of the Show with PILOBOLUS: UP

Presented by Kaiser Permanente

Based in Connecticut, Pilobolus is an internationally acclaimed collective known for its diverse collaborations that ignore preconceived barriers between creative disciplines. The company is always creating things and explores ways of using the human body as a graphic and expressive medium.

Volunteers will operate umbrellas with LED lights under the direction of the Pilobolus team. The performance will be filmed and projected on a screen in real time as the participants create patterns and change the colors of their umbrellas.

Where to Meet:

McKeldin Square (at the corners of Pratt and Light Streets)

When:

2 Performances Thursday March 31st, 8:30pm and 10:30pm

2 Performances Friday April 1st, 9:00pm and 11:30pm

2 Performances Saturday April 2nd, 8:30pm and 11:30pm

- Please be sure to arrive 15 minutes prior to each performance if you wish to volunteer
 - Volunteer Opportunities are a first come, first served basis. There is no formal registration process